

Media: Business News Week

Date: 26th June 2023

ISKCON Temple At Wave City Organizes Its 6th Annual Jagannath Rath Yatra

June 26, 2023 Sujata

Ghaziabad, 26th June 2023: ISKCON Temple at Wave City organized its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra with an aim to unite all residents and express their devotion to Lord Jagannath. The procession started from Aditya World City Gate no. 1 and concluded at ISKCON temple, Wave City. More than 1500 devotees took part in the chariot festival.

Speaking on the occasion, CJ Singh, COO of Wave City said, "The Rathayatra festival is a mass movement of ISKCON, enlightening people about the Krishna consciousness and, we, at Wave Group believe in strong community living and wish to connect our residents with each other. This yatra is a step in the direction to solidify our beliefs and ensure our residents are connected with each other by participating in this auspicious occasion and seeking blessings for a happy and successful life".

The four-hour yatra & festivities began at 6 pm and ended around 10 pm. The chariot was decorated with flowers, garlands, leaves, balloons, and colorful ribbons.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular festival that is celebrated with all traditional rituals on the Shukla Paksha Dwitiya Tithi of Ashadha month as per the Hindu calendar. According to the ancient scriptures, on this day, Lord Jagannath and his brother Lord Balabhadra and sister Subhadra, emerge from the 12th-century temple in Puri and ride the chariots to the Gundicha temple.

Link: <https://businessnewsweek.in/business/iskcon-temple-at-wave-city-organizes-its-6th-annual-jagannath-rath-yatra/>

Media: Media Bulletins.com

Date: 26th June 2023

Business

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organizes its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra

🕒 June 26, 2023

Like Tweet Save Share Instagram Share Snapchat

Ghaziabad, 26th June 2023: ISKCON Temple at Wave City organized its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra with an aim to unite all residents and express their devotion to Lord Jagannath. The procession started from Aditya World City Gate no. 1 and concluded at ISKCON temple, Wave City. More than 1500 devotees took part in the chariot festival.

“

Speaking on the occasion, CJ Singh, COO of Wave City said, “The Rathayatra festival is a mass movement of ISKCON, enlightening people about the Krishna consciousness and, we, at Wave Group believe in strong community living and wish to connect our residents with each other. This yatra is a step in the direction to solidify our beliefs and ensure our residents are connected with each other by participating in this auspicious occasion and seeking blessings for a happy and successful life”.

The four-hour yatra & festivities began at 6 pm and ended around 10 pm. The chariot was decorated with flowers, garlands, leaves, balloons, and colorful ribbons.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular festival that is celebrated with all traditional rituals on the Shukla Paksha Dwitiya Tithi of Ashadha month as per the Hindu calendar. According to the ancient scriptures, on this day, Lord Jagannath and his brother Lord Balabhadra and sister Subhadra, emerge from the 12th-century temple in Puri and ride the chariots to the Gundicha temple.

Link: <https://mediabulletins.com/business/iskcon-temple-at-wave-city-organizes-its-6th-annual-jagannath-rath-yatra/>

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organizes its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra

Views: 500 14

Ghaziabad, 26th June 2023: ISKCON Temple at Wave City organized its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra with an aim to unite all residents and express their devotion to Lord Jagannath. The procession started from Aditya World City Gate no. 1 and concluded at ISKON temple, Wave City. More than 1500 devotees took part in the chariot festival.

Speaking on the occasion, CJ Singh, COO of Wave City said, "The Rathayatra festival is a mass movement of ISKCON, enlightening people about the Krishna consciousness and, we, at Wave Group believe in strong community living and wish to connect our residents with each other. This yatra is a step in the direction to solidify our beliefs and ensure our residents are connected with each other by participating in this auspicious occasion and seeking blessings for a happy and successful life".

The four-hour yatra & festivities began at 6 pm and ended around 10 pm. The chariot was decorated with flowers, garlands, leaves, balloons, and colorful ribbons.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular festival that is celebrated with all traditional rituals on the Shukla Paksha Dwitiya Tithi of Ashadha month as per the Hindu calendar. According to the ancient scriptures, on this day, Lord Jagannath and his brother Lord Balabhadra and sister Subhadra, emerge from the 12th-century temple in Puri and ride the chariots to the Gundicha temple.

Link: - <https://smartbusinessnews.com/business/iskcon-temple-at-wave-city-organizes-its-6th-annual-jagannath-rath-yatra/>

Media: Go Earth

Date: 28th June 2023

ISKCON TEMPLE AT WAVE CITY ORGANIZES ITS 6TH ANNUAL JAGANNATH RATH YATRA

PUBLISHED ON 28 JUNE 2023 BY NARAYANAGPTA

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organized its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra with an aim to unite all residents and express their devotion to Lord Jagannath. The procession started from Aditya World City Gate no. 1 and concluded at ISKCON temple, Wave City. More than 1500 devotees took part in the chariot festival.

Speaking on the occasion, C.J Singh, CDD of Wave City said, "The Rathayatra festival is a mass movement of ISKCON, enlightening people about the Krishna consciousness and, we at Wave Group believe in strong community living and wish to connect our residents with each other. This yatra is a step in the direction to solidify our beliefs and ensure our residents are connected with each other by participating in this auspicious occasion and seeking blessings for a happy and successful life".

The four-hour yatra & festivities began at 6 pm and ended around 10 pm. The chariot was decorated with flowers, garlands, leaves, balloons and colourful ribbons.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular festival which is celebrated with all traditional rituals on the Shukla Paksha Dwitaya Tithi of Ashadha month as per the Hindu calendar. According to the ancient scriptures, on this day, Lord Jagannath and his brother Lord Balabhadra and sister Subhadra, emerge from the 12th-century temple in Puri and ride the chariots to the Gundicha temple.

"This content is provided by the company and the website will not be responsible in any way for the content of this article."

Link: <https://goearth.in/2023/06/28/iskcon-temple-at-wave-city-organizes-its-6th-annual-jagannath-rath-yatra/>

Media: The News Watch

Date: 28th June 2023

WIRAJ STATE NEWS

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organizes its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra

By Rohan Jaadhav
JUN 28, 2023

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organized its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra with an aim to unite all residents and express their devotion to Lord Jagannath. The procession started from Aditye World City Gate no. 1 and concluded at ISKCON temple, Wave City. More than 1500 devotees took part in the chariot festival.

Speaking on the occasion, CJ Singh, COO of Wave City said, "The Rathayatra festival is a mass movement of ISKCON, enlightening people about the Krishna consciousness and, we at Wave Group believe in strong community living and wish to connect our residents with each other. This yatra is a step in the direction to solidify our beliefs and ensure our residents are connected with each other by participating in this auspicious occasion and seeking blessings for a happy and successful life."

The four-hour yatra & festivities began at 6 pm and ended around 10 pm. The chariot was decorated with flowers, garlands, leaves, balloons and colourful ribbons.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular festival which is celebrated with all traditional rituals on the Shukla Paksha Dwitiya Tithi of Ashadha month as per the Hindu calendar. According to the ancient scriptures, on this day, Lord Jagannath and his brother Lord Balabhadra and sister Subhadra, emerge from the 12th-century temple in Puri and ride the chariots to the Gundicha temple.

"This content is provided by the company and the website will not be responsible in any way for the content of this article."

Link :- <https://thenewswatch.co.in/2023/06/28/iskcon-temple-at-wave-city-organizes-its-6th-annual-jagannath-rath-yatra/>

Media: Planet Report

Date: 28th June 2023

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organizes its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra

28 June 2023 Clara Devoni InfraEstate, News 0

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organized its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra with an aim to unite all residents and express their devotion to Lord Jagannath. The procession started from Aditya World City Gate no. 1 and concluded at ISKCON temple, Wave City. More than 1500 devotees took part in the chariot festival.

Speaking on the occasion, CJ Singh, COO of Wave City said, "The Rathayatra festival is a mass movement of ISKCON, enlightening people about the Krishna consciousness and, we at Wave Group believe in strong community living and wish to connect our residents with each other. This yatra is a step in the direction to solidify our beliefs and ensure our residents are connected with each other by participating in this auspicious occasion and seeking blessings for a happy and successful life".

The four-hour yatra & festivities began at 6 pm and ended around 10 pm. The chariot was decorated with flowers, garlands, leaves, balloons and colourful ribbons.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular festival which is celebrated with all traditional rituals on the Shukla Paksha Dwitaya Tithi of Ashadha month as per the Hindu calendar. According to the ancient scriptures, on this day, Lord Jagannath and his brother Lord Balabhadra and sister Subhadra, emerge from the 12th-century temple in Puri and ride the chariots to the Gundicha temple.

"This content is provided by the company and the website will not be responsible in any way for the content of this article."

Link:- <https://planetreport.in/2023/06/28/iskcon-temple-at-wave-city-organizes-its-6th-annual-jagannath-rath-yatra/>

Media: News Chronicle

Date: 28th June 2023

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organizes its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra

28 June 2023 James Good IntraState, News

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organized its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra with an aim to unite all residents and express their devotion to Lord Jagannath. The procession started from Aditya World City Gate no. 1 and concluded at ISKCON temple, Wave City. More than 1500 devotees took part in the chariot festival.

Speaking on the occasion, CJ Singh, COO of Wave City said, "The Rathayatra festival is a mass movement of ISKCON, enlightening people about the Krishna consciousness and, we at Wave Group believe in strong community living and wish to connect our residents with each other. This yatra is a step in the direction to solidify our beliefs and ensure our residents are connected with each other by participating in this auspicious occasion and seeking blessings for a happy and successful life".

The four-hour yatra & festivities began at 6 pm and ended around 10 pm. The chariot was decorated with flowers, garlands, leaves, balloons and colourful ribbons.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular festival which is celebrated with all traditional rituals on the Shukla Paksha Dwitiya Tithi of Ashadha month as per the Hindu calendar. According to the ancient scriptures, on this day, Lord Jagannath and his brother Lord Balabhadra and sister Subhadra, emerge from the 12th-century temple in Puri and ride the chariots to the Gundicha temple.

"This content is provided by the company and the website will not be responsible in any way for the content of this article."

Link:- <https://newschronicle.in/2023/06/28/iskcon-temple-at-wave-city-organizes-its-6th-annual-jagannath-rath-yatra/>

Media: Report Story

Date: 28th June 2023

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organizes its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra

R. Pal Cruise 28 June 2023 InfraEstate, News

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organized its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra with an aim to unite all residents and express their devotion to Lord Jagannath. The procession started from Aditya World City Gate no. 1 and concluded at ISKCON temple, Wave City. More than 1500 devotees took part in the chariot festival.

Speaking on the occasion, CJ Singh, COO of Wave City said, "The Rathayatra festival is a mass movement of ISKCON, enlightening people about the Krishna consciousness and, we at Wave Group believe in strong community living and wish to connect our residents with each other. This yatra is a step in the direction to solidify our beliefs and ensure our residents are connected with each other by participating in this auspicious occasion and seeking blessings for a happy and successful life".

The four-hour yatra & festivities began at 6 pm and ended around 10 pm. The chariot was decorated with flowers, garlands, leaves, balloons and colourful ribbons.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular festival which is celebrated with all traditional rituals on the Shukla Paksha Dwitiya Tithi of Ashadha month as per the Hindu calendar. According to the ancient scriptures, on this day, Lord Jagannath and his brother Lord Balabhadra and sister Subhadra, emerge from the 12th century temple in Puri and ride the chariots to the Gundicha temple.

"This content is provided by the company and the website will not be responsible in any way for the content of this article."

Link:- <https://reportstory.com/2023/06/28/iskcon-temple-at-wave-city-organizes-its-6th-annual-jagannath-rath-yatra/>

Media: The Good.in

Date: 28th June 2023

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organizes its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra

© WENDY TAYLOR © 28 JUNE 2023 © INTERSTATE NEWS

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organized its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra with an aim to unite all residents and express their devotion to Lord Jagannath. The procession started from Aditya World City Gate no. 1 and concluded at ISKCON Temple, Wave City. More than 1500 devotees took part in the chariot festival.

Speaking on the occasion, CJ Singh, COO of Wave City said, "The Rathayatra festival is a mass movement of ISKCON, enlightening people about the Krishna consciousness and, we at Wave Group believe in strong community living and wish to connect our residents with each other. This yatra is a step in the direction to solidify our beliefs and ensure our residents are connected with each other by participating in this auspicious occasion and seeking blessings for a happy and successful life".

The four-hour yatra & festivities began at 8 pm and ended around 10 pm. The chariot was decorated with flowers, garlands, leaves, balloons and colourful ribbons.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular festival which is celebrated with all traditional rituals on the Shukla Paksha Dwitiya Tithi of Ashadha month as per the Hindu calendar. According to the ancient scriptures, on this day, Lord Jagannath and his brother Lord Balabhadra and sister Subhadra, emerge from the 12th-century temple in Puri and ride the chariots to the Gundicha temple.

"This content is provided by the company and the website will not be responsible in any way for the content of this article."

Link:- <https://the-good.in/2023/06/28/iskcon-temple-at-wave-city-organizes-its-6th-annual-jagannath-rath-yatra/>

Media: News Deck

Date: 28th June 2023

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organizes its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra

28 June 2023 Vijay Raman

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organized its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra with an aim to unite all residents and express their devotion to Lord Jagannath. The procession started from Aditya World City Gate no. 1 and concluded at ISKCON temple, Wave City. More than 1500 devotees took part in the chariot festival.

Speaking on the occasion, CJ Singh, COO of Wave City said, "The Rathayatra festival is a mass movement of ISKCON, enlightening people about the Krishna consciousness and, we at Wave Group believe in strong community living and wish to connect our residents with each other. This yatra is a step in the direction to solidify our beliefs and ensure our residents are connected with each other by participating in this auspicious occasion and seeking blessings for a happy and successful life".

The four-hour yatra & festivities began at 6 pm and ended around 10 pm. The chariot was decorated with flowers, garlands, leaves, balloons and colourful ribbons.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular festival which is celebrated with all traditional rituals on the Shukla Paksha Dwitiya Tithi of Ashadha month as per the Hindu calendar. According to the ancient scriptures, on this day, Lord Jagannath and his brother Lord Balabhadra and sister Subhadra, emerge from the 12th-century temple in Puri and ride the chariots to the Gundicha temple.

"This content is provided by the company and the website will not be responsible in any way for the content of this article."

Link:- <https://newsdeck.in/2023/06/28/iskcon-temple-at-wave-city-organizes-its-6th-annual-jagannath-rath-yatra/>

Media: Live Chronicle

Date: 28th June 2023

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organizes its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra

BY DIVYA SINGH | 28 JUNE 2023 | IN KERALA, NEWS

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organized its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra with an aim to unite all residents and express their devotion to Lord Jagannath. The procession started from Aditya World City Gate no. 1 and concluded at ISKCON temple, Wave City. More than 3500 devotees took part in the chariot festival.

Speaking on the occasion, CJ Singh, COO of Wave City said, "The Rathayatra festival is a mass movement of ISKCON, enlightening people about the Krishna consciousness and, we at Wave Group believe in strong community living and wish to connect our residents with each other. This yatra is a step in the direction to solidify our beliefs and ensure our residents are connected with each other by participating in this auspicious occasion and seeking blessings for a happy and successful life".

The four-hour yatra & festivities began at 6 pm and ended around 10 pm. The chariot was decorated with flowers, garlands, leaves, balloons and colourful ribbons.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular festival which is celebrated with all traditional rituals on the Shukla Paksha Dvitiya Tithi of Ashadha month as per the Hindu calendar. According to the ancient scriptures, on this day, Lord Jagannath and his brother Lord Balabhadra and sister Subhadra, emerge from the 12th century temple in Puri and ride the chariots to the Gundicha temple.

"This content is provided by the company and the website will not be responsible in any way for the content of this article."

Link:- <https://livechronicle.in/2023/06/28/iskcon-temple-at-wave-city-organizes-its-6th-annual-jagannath-rath-yatra/>

Media: Good Report

Date: 28th June 2023

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organizes its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organized its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra with an aim to unite all residents and express their devotion to Lord Jagannath. The procession started from Aditya World City Gate no. 1 and concluded at ISKON temple, Wave City. More than 1500 devotees took part in the chariot festival.

Speaking on the occasion, CJ Singh, COO of Wave City said, "The Rathayatra festival is a mass movement of ISKCON, enlightening people about the Krishna consciousness and, we at Wave Group believe in strong community living and wish to connect our residents with each other. This yatra is a step in the direction to solidify our beliefs and ensure our residents are connected with each other by participating in this auspicious occasion and seeking blessings for a happy and successful life".

The four-hour yatra & festivities began at 6 pm and ended around 10 pm. The chariot was decorated with flowers, garlands, leaves, balloons and colourful ribbons.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular festival which is celebrated with all traditional rituals on the Shukla Paksha Dwitiya Tithi of Ashadha month as per the Hindu calendar. According to the ancient scriptures, on this day, Lord Jagannath and his brother Lord Balabhadra and sister Subhadra, emerge from the 12th-century temple in Puri and ride the chariots to the Gundicha temple.

"This content is provided by the company and the website will not be responsible in any way for the content of this article."

Link:- <https://goodreport.in/2023/06/28/iskcon-temple-at-wave-city-organizes-its-6th-annual-jagannath-rath-yatra/>

Media: Earth News 4 U

Date: 28th June 2023

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organizes its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra

 Ramkaran Mishra  28 June 2023

INFRAESTATE

NEWS

ISKCON Temple at Wave City organized its 6th annual Jagannath Rath Yatra with an aim to unite all residents and express their devotion to Lord Jagannath. The procession started from Aditya World City Gate no. 1 and concluded at ISKON temple, Wave City. More than 1500 devotees took part in the chariot festival.

Speaking on the occasion, CJ Singh, COO of Wave City said, "The Rathayatra festival is a mass movement of ISKCON, enlightening people about the Krishna consciousness and, we at Wave Group believe in strong community living and wish to connect our residents with each other. This yatra is a step in the direction to solidify our beliefs and ensure our residents are connected with each other by participating in this auspicious occasion and seeking blessings for a happy and successful life".

The four-hour yatra & festivities began at 6 pm and ended around 10 pm. The chariot was decorated with flowers, garlands, leaves, balloons and colourful ribbons.

Jagannath Rath Yatra is a popular festival which is celebrated with all traditional rituals on the Shukla Paksha Dwitiya Tithi of Ashadha month as per the Hindu calendar. According to the ancient scriptures, on this day, Lord Jagannath and his brother Lord Balabhadra and sister Subhadra, emerge from the 12th-century temple in Puri and ride the chariots to the Gundicha temple.

"This content is provided by the company and the website will not be responsible in any way for the content of this article."

Link:- <https://earthnews4u.com/2023/06/28/iskcon-temple-at-wave-city-organizes-its-6th-annual-jagannath-rath-yatra/>