Ghaziabad, 18th August, 2025: Residents of Wave City, the first operational Hi-tech City in North India, came together today to celebrate the 79th Independence Day with great zeal and patriotic fervour. The celebrations commenced with a grand flag-hoisting ceremony at the township, attended by residents, staff, and guests.

The event was marked by cultural performances, distribution of sweets, and a special awards segment honouring the dedicated security personnel of Wave City for their exemplary services. Gifts, tri-colour flags, and mementoes were presented to the attendees, fostering a sense of unity and community spirit.

On the occasion, Mr. CJ Singh, COO, Wave City, said: "Independence Day is a reminder of the immense sacrifices that paved the way for our nation's freedom. At Wave City, we take pride in commemorating this day by coming together as a community to salute the Tiranga. Hoisting the national flag is not just a ritual—it is a reaffirmation of our shared values, unity, and vision for a stronger, more progressive India. We encourage everyone to proudly display the Tiranga at their homes, societies, and workplaces to honour our nation and its spirit."
