Ghaziabad, 5th Nov 2025: Wave City, one of Ghaziabad's most coveted Smart Cities, nestled adjacent to NH-24, celebrated the auspicious occasion of Guru Nanak Dev Ji's Prakash Purab with devotion, unity, and spiritual harmony on Wednesday, November 5, 2025. The event was hosted at Wave City sales office and the key highlights of the celebration included a special kirtan samagam (special devotional congregation) dedicated to Dhan Dhan Sahib Sri Guru Nanak Dev Ji Maharaj.

The celebration began with the recitation of Path Shri Sukhmani Sahib Ji from 10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., followed by an uplifting Shabad kirtan from 11:30 a.m. to 12:15 noon and an Ardaas from 12:15p.m. to 12:30 p.m.. The Kirtan was led by the esteemed Bhai Jagdeep Singh Ji (Bangla Sahib), who shared the divine message of peace, compassion, and selfless service. Following the spiritual congregation, Guru Ka Langar was served at 12:30 p.m., offering devotees and visitors the opportunity to partake in a sacred community meal symbolising equality, unity and humility.

Speaking about the celebration, Mr. C.J. Singh, COO, Wave City, said "At Wave City, we have always believed in nurturing a community that reflects India's spiritual and cultural richness. The celebration of Guru Nanak Jayanti was a moment of deep reverence and reflection, reminding us of the Guru's eternal teachings of compassion, equality, and service to all. It was heartening to see everyone come together to experience the peace and togetherness that truly define the essence of Guru Nanak Dev Ji's teachings."

The Gurburab celebration was more than a religious event, as Wave City sought to make it a symbol of shared humanity and mutual respect. Wave City's commitment to fostering cultural inclusivity stood as a model for community-led celebrations that strengthened social bonds and encouraged people to live with empathy and togetherness through both joyous moments and challenging times.
