WAVE
City

Media: News Harpal Date: 22nd October 2026

धर्म-कर्म / राज्यों से

वेव सिटी, गाजियाबाद में लव कुश रामलीला का सफलतापूर्वक हुआ समापन

October 22, 2026 - by टीम डिजिटल - Leave a Comment

गाजियाबाद। वेव सिटी ने लव कुश रामलीला कमेटी के साथ मिलकर लव कुश रामलीला 2026 का सफलतापूर्वक समापन किया। ग्यारह दिनों तक चले इस आयोजन में लगभग 25000 लोग शामिल हुए। भक्ति, सांस्कृतिक विरासत एवं सामुदायिक उत्सव की भावना से ओतप्रोत कार्यक्रमों के माध्यम से कालातीत महाकाव्य रामायण को भाव्य मंच पर प्रदर्शित किया गया।

11 अक्टूबर से 21 अक्टूबर 2026 तक सेक्टर 4, गेट नंबर 5, वेव सिटी में हुए इस आयोजन में प्रतिदिन भगवान श्री राम के जीवन की विशिष्ट घटनाओं का मंचन किया गया। इसका उद्देश्य भारत की समृद्ध सांस्कृतिक परंपराओं का संरक्षण और प्रोत्साहन था, साथ ही हर पीढ़ी के दर्शकों को सच्चाई, नेकी, साहस, भक्ति एवं बुराई पर अच्छाई की जीत जैसे चिरस्थायी मूल्यों से परिचित कराना था।

इस आयोजन के बारे में वेव सिटी के सीओओ सी जे सिंह ने कहा, "रामलीला केवल मात्र एक नाट्य प्रस्तुति से कहीं अधिक है। यह भारत की सांस्कृतिक और आध्यात्मिक विरासत की जीवंत अभिव्यक्ति है। वेव सिटी में, हमारी कोशिश सिर्फ आधुनिक जीवनशैली को ही नहीं, बल्कि सांस्कृतिक एवं आध्यात्मिक तालमेल को बढ़ावा देना भी है। हम लव कुश रामलीला कमेटी के साथ इस शानदार उत्सव की मेज़बानी करके बहुत खुश हैं और उन सभी के शुक्रगुजार हैं जिन्होंने इस कार्यक्रम को समुदाय के लिए खास बनाने में मदद की।"

Link: - https://www.newsharpal.in/lav-kush-ramlila-2026-concludes-successfully-at-wave-city-ghaziabad/

WAVE City

Media: Street News Date: 22nd October 2026

Lav Kush Ramlila 2026 Concludes Successfully at Wave City, Ghaziabad

October 22, 2026 Street News Bureau 5 Views

Ghaziabad: Wave City, in association with the Lav Kush Ramlila Committee, successfully concluded Lav Kush Ramlila 2026, attracting approximately 25,000 people over its 11-day run. Celebrating devotion, cultural heritage and community spirit, the event brought the timeless epic of the Ramayana to life through grand theatrical performances.

Held from October 11 to 21, 2026, at Sector 4, Gate No. 5, Wave City, the event featured daily performances depicting significant episodes from the life of Lord Shri Ram. The initiative aimed to preserve and promote India's rich cultural traditions while familiarising audiences across generations with enduring values such as truth, righteousness, courage, devotion and the triumph of good over evil.

Speaking about the event, C.J. Singh, COO of Wave City, said, "Ramlila is much more than a theatrical performance. It is a living expression of India's cultural and spiritual heritage. At Wave City, our endeavour is not only to promote a modern lifestyle but also to foster cultural and spiritual harmony. We are delighted to have hosted this wonderful celebration in association with the Lav Kush Ramlila Committee and are grateful to everyone who helped make the event special for the community."

The successful conclusion of Lav Kush Ramlila 2026 reaffirmed the importance of cultural celebrations in bringing communities together and passing India's rich traditions and timeless values on to future generations.

Link: - https://streetnews.in/lav-kush-ramlila-2026-concludes-successfully-at-wave-city-ghaziabad/

WAVE City

Media: Gupteswar Date: 22nd October 2026

Wave City, Ghaziabad successfully concludes Luv Kush Ramlila, a celebration of the timeless legacy of the Ramayana

Entertainment K Pushpa 21 Oct 2026

Ghaziabad, Oct 21: Wave City, in association with the Lav Kush Ramlila Committee, successfully concluded the Luv Kush Ramlila 2026.The celebrations held over eleven days was attended by approximately 25000 people, united through the spirit of devotion, cultural heritage and community celebration through the grand stage presentation of the timeless epic Ramayana.

Held from 11 October to 21 October 2026 at Sector 4, Gate No. 5, Wave City, the celebration featured daily enactment of significant episodes from the life of Lord Shri Ram and aimed to preserve and promote India's rich cultural traditions while conveying the enduring values of truth, righteousness, courage, devotion and the victory of good over evil with audiences across generations.

Bhoomi Pujan for the event was held on October 11, 2026 followed by a Dandiya night. The Ravan Vadh and Ravan Dahan ceremony was held on 20 October, coinciding with the Dussehra festivities. The symbolic burning of Ravana's effigy reinforced the timeless message that truth and righteousness ultimately triumph over arrogance and evil. The celebrations culminated on 21 October with Bharat Milap and Raj Tilak, marking an emotionally significant conclusion to the epic's dramatic journey.

Speaking about celebrations, C J Singh, COO, Wave City, said:

"Ramlila is much more than a theatrical presentation. It is a living expression of India's cultural and spiritual heritage. At Wave City, our endeavour is to foster not just modern living, but also cultural and spiritual harmony. We are delighted to host this vibrant festival along with the Lav Kush Ramlila Committee and grateful to everyone who contributed to making this event meaningful for the community."

The success of the event reflects the community's enthusiasm for India's traditional performing arts and cultural celebrations. With its blend of devotional storytelling, cultural festivities and community engagement, Wave City's Luv Kush Ramlila 2026 reaffirmed the enduring relevance of the Ramayana and the importance of preserving India's living cultural traditions for generations to come.

Speaking about celebrations, C J Singh, COO, Wave City, said:

"Ramlila is much more than a theatrical presentation. It is a living expression of India's cultural and spiritual heritage. At Wave City, our endeavour is to foster not just modern living, but also cultural and spiritual harmony. We are delighted to host this vibrant festival along with the Lav Kush Ramlila Committee and grateful to everyone who contributed to making this event meaningful for the community."

Link: - https://gupteswar.com/entertainment/wave-city-ghaziabad-successfully-concludes-luv-kush-ramlila-a-celebration-of-the-timeless-legacy-of-the-ramayana

WAVE City

Media: Business Scanner Date: 21st October 2026

Wave City, Ghaziabad successfully concludes Luv Kush Ramlila, a celebration of the timeless legacy of the Ramayana

Entertainment K Pooja 21 Oct 2026

Ghaziabad, Oct 21: Wave City, in association with the Lav Kush Ramlila Committee, successfully concluded the Luv Kush Ramlila 2026.The celebrations held over eleven days was attended by approximately 25000 people, united through the spirit of devotion, cultural heritage and community celebration through the grand stage presentation of the timeless epic Ramayana.

Held from 11 October to 21 October 2026 at Sector 4, Gate No. 5, Wave City, the celebration featured daily enactment of significant episodes from the life of Lord Shri Ram and aimed to preserve and promote India's rich cultural traditions while conveying the enduring values of truth, righteousness, courage, devotion and the victory of good over evil with audiences across generations.

Bhoomi Pujan for the event was held on October 11, 2026 followed by a Dandiya night. The Ravan Vadh and Ravan Dahan ceremony was held on 20 October, coinciding with the Dussehra festivities. The symbolic burning of Ravana's effigy reinforced the timeless message that truth and righteousness ultimately triumph over arrogance and evil. The celebrations culminated on 21 October with Bharat Milap and Raj Tilak, marking an emotionally significant conclusion to the epic's dramatic journey.

Speaking about celebrations, C J Singh, COO, Wave City, said:

"Ramlila is much more than a theatrical presentation. It is a living expression of India's cultural and spiritual heritage. At Wave City, our endeavour is to foster not just modern living, but also cultural and spiritual harmony. We are delighted to host this vibrant festival along with the Lav Kush Ramlila Committee and grateful to everyone who contributed to making this event meaningful for the community."

The success of the event reflects the community's enthusiasm for India's traditional performing arts and cultural celebrations. With its blend of devotional storytelling, cultural festivities and community engagement, Wave City's Luv Kush Ramlila 2026 reaffirmed the enduring relevance of the Ramayana and the importance of preserving India's living cultural traditions for generations to come.

Link: - https://businesscanner.com/entertainment/wave-city-ghaziabad-successfully-concludes-luv-kush-ramlila-a-celebration-of-the-timeless-legacy-of-the-ramayana

WAVE City

Media: Business News Matrix Date: 21st October 2026

Wave City, Ghaziabad successfully concludes Luv Kush Ramlila, a celebration of the timeless legacy of the Ramayana

Entertainment K Puspa 21 Oct 2026

Ghaziabad, Oct 21: Wave City, in association with the Lav Kush Ramlila Committee, successfully concluded the Luv Kush Ramlila 2026.The celebrations held over eleven days was attended by approximately 25000 people, united through the spirit of devotion, cultural heritage and community celebration through the grand stage presentation of the timeless epic Ramayana.

Held from 11 October to 21 October 2026 at Sector 4, Gate No. 5, Wave City, the celebration featured daily enactment of significant episodes from the life of Lord Shri Ram and aimed to preserve and promote India's rich cultural traditions while conveying the enduring values of truth, righteousness, courage, devotion and the victory of good over evil with audiences across generations.

Bhoomi Pujan for the event was held on October 11, 2026 followed by a Dandiya night. The Ravan Vadh and Ravan Dahan ceremony was held on 20 October, coinciding with the Dussehra festivities. The symbolic burning of Ravana's effigy reinforced the timeless message that truth and righteousness ultimately triumph over arrogance and evil. The celebrations culminated on 21 October with Bharat Milap and Raj Tilak, marking an emotionally significant conclusion to the epic's dramatic journey.

Speaking about celebrations, C J Singh, COO, Wave City, said:

"Ramlila is much more than a theatrical presentation. It is a living expression of India's cultural and spiritual heritage. At Wave City, our endeavour is to foster not just modern living, but also cultural and spiritual harmony. We are delighted to host this vibrant festival along with the Lav Kush Ramlila Committee and grateful to everyone who contributed to making this event meaningful for the community."

The success of the event reflects the community's enthusiasm for India's traditional performing arts and cultural celebrations. With its blend of devotional storytelling, cultural festivities and community engagement, Wave City's Luv Kush Ramlila 2026 reaffirmed the enduring relevance of the Ramayana and the importance of preserving India's living cultural traditions for generations to come.

Link: - https://businessnewsmatrix.com/entertainment/wave-city-ghaziabad-successfully-concludes-luv-kush-ramlila-a-celebration-of-the-timeless-legacy-of-the-ramayana

WAVE City

Media: Enterprise Digital News Date: 21st October 2026

Wave City, Ghaziabad successfully concludes Luv Kush Ramlila, a celebration of the timeless legacy of the Ramayana

Entertainment K Pujya 10/21/2026

Ghaziabad, Oct 21: Wave City, in association with the Lav Kush Ramlila Committee, successfully concluded the Luv Kush Ramlila 2026.The celebrations held over eleven days was attended by approximately 25000 people, united through the spirit of devotion, cultural heritage and community celebration through the grand stage presentation of the timeless epic Ramayana.

Held from 11 October to 21 October 2026 at Sector 4, Gate No. 5, Wave City, the celebration featured daily enactment of significant episodes from the life of Lord Shri Ram and aimed to preserve and promote India's rich cultural traditions while conveying the enduring values of truth, righteousness, courage, devotion and the victory of good over evil with audiences across generations.

Bhoomi Pujan for the event was held on October 11, 2026 followed by a Dandiya night. The Ravan Vadh and Ravan Dahan ceremony was held on 20 October, coinciding with the Dussehra festivities. The symbolic burning of Ravana's effigy reinforced the timeless message that truth and righteousness ultimately triumph over arrogance and evil. The celebrations culminated on 21 October with Bharat Milap and Raj Tilak, marking an emotionally significant conclusion to the epic's dramatic journey.

Speaking about celebrations, C J Singh, COO, Wave City, said:

"Ramlila is much more than a theatrical presentation. It is a living expression of India's cultural and spiritual heritage. At Wave City, our endeavour is to foster not just modern living, but also cultural and spiritual harmony. We are delighted to host this vibrant festival along with the Lav Kush Ramlila Committee and grateful to everyone who contributed to making this event meaningful for the community."

The success of the event reflects the community's enthusiasm for India's traditional performing arts and cultural celebrations. With its blend of devotional storytelling, cultural festivities and community engagement, Wave City's Luv Kush Ramlila 2026 reaffirmed the enduring relevance of the Ramayana and the importance of preserving India's living cultural traditions for generations to come.

Link: - https://enterprisedigitalnews.com/entertainment/wave-city-ghaziabad-successfully-concludes-luv-kush-ramlila-a-celebration-of-the-timeless-legacy-of-the-ramayana

WAVE City

Media: Business News Chronicle Date: 21st October 2026

Wave City, Ghaziabad successfully concludes Luv Kush Ramlila, a celebration of the timeless legacy of the Ramayana

Entertainment K Puspa 21 Oct 2026

Ghaziabad, Oct 21: Wave City, in association with the Lav Kush Ramlila Committee, successfully concluded the Luv Kush Ramlila 2026.The celebrations held over eleven days was attended by approximately 25000 people, united through the spirit of devotion, cultural heritage and community celebration through the grand stage presentation of the timeless epic Ramayana.

Held from 11 October to 21 October 2026 at Sector 4, Gate No. 5, Wave City, the celebration featured daily enactment of significant episodes from the life of Lord Shri Ram and aimed to preserve and promote India's rich cultural traditions while conveying the enduring values of truth, righteousness, courage, devotion and the victory of good over evil with audiences across generations.

Bhoomi Pujan for the event was held on October 11, 2026 followed by a Dandiya night. The Ravan Vadh and Ravan Dahan ceremony was held on 20 October, coinciding with the Dussehra festivities. The symbolic burning of Ravana's effigy reinforced the timeless message that truth and righteousness ultimately triumph over arrogance and evil. The celebrations culminated on 21 October with Bharat Milap and Raj Tilak, marking an emotionally significant conclusion to the epic's dramatic journey.

Speaking about celebrations, C J Singh, COO, Wave City, said:

"Ramlila is much more than a theatrical presentation. It is a living expression of India's cultural and spiritual heritage. At Wave City, our endeavour is to foster not just modern living, but also cultural and spiritual harmony. We are delighted to host this vibrant festival along with the Lav Kush Ramlila Committee and grateful to everyone who contributed to making this event meaningful for the community."

The success of the event reflects the community's enthusiasm for India's traditional performing arts and cultural celebrations. With its blend of devotional storytelling, cultural festivities and community engagement, Wave City's Luv Kush Ramlila 2026 reaffirmed the enduring relevance of the Ramayana and the importance of preserving India's living cultural traditions for generations to come.

Link: - https://businessnewschronicle.com/entertainment/wave-city-ghaziabad-successfully-concludes-luv-kush-ramlila-a-celebration-of-the-timeless-legacy-of-the-ramayana